

This General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) gives you an overview about the management of your personal data.

Introduction

The management of your personal data on this website is managed by Joerg Swoboda, the owner of this website. No other person has access to the backend of the website nor access to the data.

Which data are collected?

We only collect the minimum set of data which is required to execute your purchases. This includes the login and check out information collected.

How do we use your data?

We will use your data for the management of your purchases and to keep you up to date with further developments on our project respectively our artwork.

There is no direct link of your data to social media plugins or similar tools.

Newsletter or Push notifications

None of the above is currently in place and in case it will be in place at some point you will always have the option to cancel this function.

How are you data protected?

The website is built on the wix platform and all data protection of the wix platform apply to this website too. In addition I am the only person who has access to this data and no intention of playing around with your personal information.

Which data protection rights do I have as a user?

Beside the above we will delete all your records immediately upon written notification from your side.
